

How we contact our families:

Emails: monthly newsletters and monthly financial statements
Email addresses are mandatory for registered families. Always check spam or promotions folders.

Text blasts: for major event reminders or sudden studio closures, and deadlines

Studio Signs: we post signs in studio windows and on billboards throughout the season for performances/volunteering info/company information

Hardcopy newsletters: We send out three hard copy newsletters throughout the season for all our students and their families

Postings on our website: we try to update our website as frequently as we can with current event and class information
